

YOUTH AND BECOMINGNESS . . . This criss-cross effect of bangs gives softness to the face, yet has dignity and charm, points out Mr. Connelle, who will visit the May Co. South Bay Beauty Salon from Monday through Nov. 4. Area women are invited to visit Mr. Connelle for free consultations on hair styling, cutting and permanent waving.

'Take a Candid Look' Hairstylist Advises

"Every ten years of her life, a woman should take a candid look at herself," says Mr. Connelle, top-flight hair designer who will visit the May Co. South Bay beauty salon from Oct. 23 to Nov. 4. Mr. Connelle will be available for free consultation on hair styling, cutting and permanent waving for the women of the area.

"Not only should a woman really study her hair style but she should examine her cosmetics to see that they are suitable for her changing skin tones," he advises.

If a woman does this honest kind of analysis with the help of an expert counselor, she will never look dated from the viewpoint of fashion, and she will always look her prettiest and youngest.

"If a woman attunes her appearance to her proper age level she will never have any one whispering about her age. The subject simply won't seem to matter," he claims.

To back up his theories, Mr. Connelle has made a specialty of what he calls "Total Effect Haircuts".

There is always a length, a degree of curl or smoothness, an overall silhouette that is eminently right for a woman's "total effect" as well as being the most flattering to her in close-up range," the hair stylist points out. All women of the area are invited to visit the May Co. South Bay Beauty Salon during Mr. Connelle's stay.
